1. It is reported that Prime Minister Nuqrashi will make the accusation, when Egypt's case is presented to the Security Council, that Britain is threatening the peace and security of the Middle East by fostering the separation of the Sudan from Egypt, as Egypt will then be deprived of the means of defending itself and the Nile Valley against foreign attack.
2. After the Security Council hearing of Egypt's case against Britain, a possible recourse for Nuqrashi will be to the Hague Court for the purpose of challenging the validity of the 1899 Condominium.
3. Nuqrashi reportedly is planning to repudiate in the near future the Sidqi-Bevin agreement, which permitted three years for the complete evacuation of Egypt, as he does not regard it as binding on him to agree to the excessive time limit.
